Your Efficiency Solutions

Learn how you, your neighbors, coworkers and clients can benefit from Boulder County's new EnergySmart service.

Thursday, April 7th, 2011
Oskar Blues, Longmont
5 – 7 p.m.

Chance to win a
FREE Energy
Audit plus Energy Saving door prizes!

Enjoy free appetizers, mingle and relax for an informal evening, as we gather to learn about Boulder County's residential EnergySmart service.

Available to all residents of Boulder County, EnergySmart helps take the hassle out of energy upgrades for single- and multi-family homes.

Limited-time rebates and low-interest micro-loans are available to EnergySmart participants, plus FREE energy-saving devices!

Register for this free event at www.bgbg.org and join other leaders in the community as we talk about this exciting opportunity! Appetizers will be provided free of charge to complement Oskar Blues' assortment of locally brewed refreshments.
